The 2019 Inaugural Annual Meeting of the Virginia Dermatology Society

Dermatology Excellence in Virginia

October 26-27, 2019

Williamsburg Woodlands Hotel and Suites
Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia

vaderm.org

JOINTLY PROVIDED BY THE OFFICE OF CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA SCHOOL OF MEDICINE AND THE VIRGINIA DERMATOLOGY SOCIETY

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This conference will provide for quick identification of skin disease which is essential for optimal patient outcomes.

Increase confidence in diagnosing and treating dermatologic conditions in skin of color due to lack of experience, thus it is critical that these providers follow best practices.

TARGETED AUDIENCE

Physicians

Physician Assistants

Nurse Practitioners

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

The field of Dermatology continues to move toward the goal of more quick and accurate diagnosis of skin disease by sharing particularly educational cases that may be applied to future patients. The Virginia Dermatology Society is dedicated to educating health care providers involved in treating patients with dermatologic Conditions.

At the completion of the 2019 Virginia Dermatology Society Annual Meeting, the participant should be able to understand and appreciate:

- Atypical presentations of common general dermatologic conditions and diseases and diagnose rare dermatologic conditions and diseases, especially those encountered frequently in the Virginia patient population.
- The effective management of skin disease in skin of color and identify therapeutic concerns unique to this population.
- The most recent evidence-based recommendations to the safe and effective care of surgical dermatology patients with conditions including, but not limited to, benign neoplasms, melanoma skin cancer, and non-melanoma skin cancer.
